WARSHIP FLEET TWICE BOMBARDS RUSSIAN PORT

Town Was Badly Torn Up, Several Being Killed and Wounded, Many Houses Destroyed and Telegraph Service Disabled—A French Cruiser Attacked a German Submarine and It Is Believed Sank It—All Eyes Are Now on the Battle in the Carpathians and It Is Regarded as Important as Bombardment of Dardanelles—Germans and Austrians Struggling to Keep Russians Out of Hungary. Fear It Would Stir Balkans to Action—Two British Steamers Torpedoed and Sunk.

[By Associated Press.] London, March 31.—A Libau dispatch says a German fleet twice bombarded that Russian port, killing three, wounding seven, destroying fifteen houses and destroying the telegraph wires.

SUBMARINE BELIEVED SUNK. [By Associated Press.] Paris, March 31.—(Official.)—A French light cruiser yesterday attempted to ram a submarine off Dieppe. It is believed she sank the submarine.

ALL EYES ON CARPATHIANS. [By Associated Press.] London, March 31.—The battle in the Carpathian passes now rivals the bombardment of the Dardanelles in political possibilities. German experts assert, according to dispatches received here, that Germany and Austria must use every effort to prevent the Russians reaching Hungary, as there is danger that this would stir the Balkan Nations to action.

Petrograd officially warns the Russians not to expect the early capitulation of Constantinople. Internally, England is still concerned with the labor and drink situation. Liverpool dockers show no signs of receding from their demands. The commercial bodies are offering to back the government in a drastic anti-liquor action.

Russians Renew Attack. [By Associated Press.] Vienna, March 31.—After twenty-four hours' rest the Russians brought reinforcements and resumed the fighting at Dukla Pass in the Carpathians, say the press dispatches received here. The Russians have been unable yet to reach Hungary and were defeated in Bukovina yesterday.

Austrians Lose Heavily. [By Associated Press.] Geneva, March 31.—Swiss newspaper dispatches say the Russians have reached Northeastern Hungary and that the Austrian losses there were 1,800.

Russian Report. [By Associated Press.] Petrograd, March 31.—(Official.)—The Russians defeated the Turks and captured the town of Artyin on the Black Sea.

British Steamer Sunk. [By Associated Press.] London, March 31.—The British steamer Flaminian was sunk on Monday off Scilly Islands, presumably by a submarine. The crew was saved. The German submarine U-28 sank the Flaminian.

Fire Bug on Steamer. [By Associated Press.] Paris, March 31.—Raymond Swaboda, described on the ship's record as an "American subject," was arrested and charged with setting fire to the French liner La Touraine, recently saved after being afire at sea. Newspapers say Swaboda is suspected of having "close relations with the enemy."

German Statement. [By Associated Press.] Berlin, March 31.—(Official.)—The Russians were repulsed north of Augustowo and near Taurögen. Allied aviators dropped bombs on Belgian towns of Bruges, Ghislelles and Courtrai, killing a Belgian at the last place. There was no material damage. The French were repulsed west of Pont-a-Mousson.

Coal Supply for Eitel. [By Associated Press.] Newport News, March 31.—It is reported from Sewells Point, Va., that 1,600 tons of coal are being loaded on barges for the Prinz Eitel Friedrich to be delivered tonight or tomorrow. Naval officers said they knew nothing of such order and that the Eitel could only coal under United States supervision. It is believed to mean the Eitel is preparing to leave.

One United States Citizen on Falaba. [By Associated Press.] Hardwick, Mass., March 31.—Leon Chester Thrasher, a passenger, drowned when a German submarine sank the British steamer Falaba, was a citizen of the United States. He was born here in 1884. His family has asked Washington for details.

Another Steamer Torpedoed. [By Associated Press.] Cardiff, Wales, March 31.—The Cardiff Echo declares the steamer Crown The first barge of coal has left Sewells Point and the Eitel is preparing to begin coaling this afternoon.

VILLA'S TROOPS CHANGE POSITIONS

It is Believed They Are Trying for Position to Cut Matamoros Off.

[By Associated Press.] Brownsville, Tex., March 31.—Matamoros is quiet today. There are no indications when the Villistas will resume the attack. The Villistas apparently have circled to the southwest, thus to be in position to cut Matamoros off, but it is not believed there are enough Villistas for that purpose.
